Keynote Address:

The Surprisingly Deep Connection Between Large Language Models and Human Language

Dr. Lauri Järvillehto,
 Director, Aalto Ventures Program,
 Aalto University, Finland

Hybrid Mode

03 - 04, May 2024

Dr. Lauri Järvillehto, Professor of Practice at Aalto University, recognized as a philosopher, researcher, author and musician. As the founder of Filosofian Akatemia and a former board member of UNICEF Finland, Lauri has a rich background. His best-selling works on thinking and learning have garnered international acclaim and he frequently lectures globally. Currently, Lauri's research explores the intersection of the human mind and generative artificial intelligence solutions. In his recent role as Director of Aalto Ventures Program, Lauri led a team of 20 experts, crafting the unit's strategy and contributing to the university's vision. He played a pivotal role in internationalizing the program, fostering sustainable startups in the US, Korea, Tanzania, Nigeria and India. Lauri's commitment extends to social impact, evident in his two terms on the UNICEF Finland NatCom Board of Directors. His dedication to education, innovation and global collaboration underscores Lauri Järvillehto's influential role in academia and entrepreneurship.
