Director's Message

Dr. C D Naiju

Director, Students' Welfare
Dr. MGR Block, Room # 102

A regional new year festival, organized by students and faculty, brought together the spirit of Gudi Padava for Marathi, Bengali, Telugu, Kannada, Oriya, Punjabi, Malayalam, and Tamil communities. It was a delightful mix of fun, food, and festivities.

For the first time ever, VIT celebrated the Nepali new year, complete with a delicious feast. A musical performance by a Bengali band added to the cultural extravaganza.

Technical Innovation in Focus: The Yantra Central Hackathon was a major highlight, attracting nearly 125 teams (over 750 students) and culminating in a thrilling finale with 15 teams competing for a grand prize of 5 lakh rupees. Electra hackathon provided a platform for students to tackle challenges related to electronics.

Entrepreneurial Inspiration: E-Summit, a dedicated event for aspiring entrepreneurs, featured talks by eminent speakers who shared their experiences and valuable guidance.

Global Engagement:

VIT MUN'24, a prestigious event, saw delegates from various institutes participate in stimulating debates on current affairs. The inaugural and valedictory ceremonies were graced by distinguished guests.

Farewell and Celebration: The Class of 2025 postgraduate students bid farewell with a memorable evening. Photo sessions, cultural performances, and a celebratory dinner with faculty and friends marked the occasion.

Overall, April at VIT was a month that celebrated diversity, fostered innovation, and provided opportunities for learning and growth.

Kannada New Year

On April 9th, 2024, the Kannada Literary Association (KLA) orchestrated a jubilant Ugadi celebration, a tapestry woven with cultural threads and vibrant traditions. The festivities commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, filling the venue with a warm glow symbolizing hope and prosperity. Amidst fragrant incense and sacred chants, fervent prayers ascended, seeking blessings for the journey ahead. Infusing the gathering with exuberance, an array of engaging activities unfolded, from spirited games fostering camaraderie to a spirited contest to crown the most resplendent attire among club members, each ensemble a testament to Karnataka's rich heritage. As twilight descended, the stage metamorphosed into a tableau of artistic splendor, showcasing the kaleidoscope of talents nestled within the association. The evening's crescendo featured a rendition of the state anthem, a harmonious ode to Karnataka's resplendent ethos. This melodic prelude paved the way for a symphony of performances that enraptured hearts and stirred souls. From classical melodies to the graceful pirouettes of traditional dances, each act was a tapestry of cultural nuances, weaving together the essence of Karnataka's artistic heritage. Amidst the applause and cheers, a sense of collective pride and belonging permeated the air, binding participants in a shared tapestry of cultural richness. As the event drew to a close, hearts brimmed with cherished memories and spirits soared with renewed appreciation for the bonds that unite a community. The Ugadi celebration had transcended mere festivity; it had become a celebration of identity, tradition, and the enduring spirit of the Kannada Literary Association.

Bengali New Year

In a vibrant celebration of Bengali culture, The Bengali Literary Association (Aikyataan) proudly presented its signature event, Notun Bochorer Prothom Sondha, captivating audiences on the evening of 26th April 2024. The festivities commenced with the enthralling melodies of the renowned Bengali band, Taalpatar Sepahi. Their spellbinding performance set the perfect tone for an evening steeped in cultural richness. The musical extravaganza was just the beginning, as the celebrations continued on 30th April with a dazzling display of Bengali dance and songs.

This vibrant showcase transported the audience on a journey through the diverse heritage of Bengal, leaving them mesmerized by the artistic tapestry. Undoubtedly, the crowning jewel of the event was the grand Bengali buffet. This culinary delight featured an array of iconic dishes, each bursting with authentic flavors. From the aromatic Fish Fry and the hearty Mutton Kosha to the melt-in-your-mouth Roshogolla sweets, the buffet was a true testament to Bengali cuisine. Notun Bochorer Prothom Sondha wasn't merely an event; it was a multi-sensory experience that celebrated the essence of Bengali art, music, and the culinary arts, leaving a lasting impression on all students who participated.

SW EVENTS

Utkalika

On April 13, 2024, the Odisha Literary Association (Utkal Samaj) celebrated Utkal Divas and Pana Sankranti with an event named "Utkalika" at Greenos. The event attracted over 200 attendees, including faculty members, students, and showcased Odisha's rich culture through dance, music, and skits.

The dance performances featured the renowned Odissi style, known for its grace and intricate movements, along with various folk dances inspired from different Odia festivals. These performances demonstrated not only the dancers' skills but also the cultural tradition passed down through generations. In the musical segment, students presented a mix of classical and modern Odia songs, including the state anthem, instilling a sense of pride and unity among the attendees. The blend of traditional tunes and contemporary music highlighted the versatility and depth of Odia music, engaging the audience and celebrating the state's musical heritage.

A significant part of the event was a skit portraying the lives and struggles of three notable freedom fighters from Odisha. This theatrical presentation highlighted their contributions to the state's freedom movement, offering a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made. The skit was both educational and inspiring, emphasizing the importance of remembering and honoring the major figures who played vital roles in Odisha's history.

The event concluded with heartfelt vote of thanks from both students and faculty members, expressing gratitude for the participation and support from everyone involved. "Utkalika" successfully combined education, entertainment, and cultural appreciation, making it a memorable celebration of Odisha's heritage and fostering a sense of community and cultural pride among the participants and attendees.

Gudhi Padwa

Gudhi Padwa, the joyous occasion of the Marathi and Konkani New Year, commenced with the auspicious Gudhipujan and aarti, by our Honorable Vice President, Dr. G V Selvam, setting a tone of reverence and auspiciousness. Gudhi Padwa, is celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy, symbolizing new beginnings and the arrival of spring. This spiritual start was followed by an electrifying performance by the enthusiastic members of Yuva Marathi's Dhol Tasha Pathak, infusing the atmosphere with energy and zeal. The morning session was further adorned by the serving of an authentic Maharashtrian breakfast, adding a delightful flavor to the event's early hours.

As the day progressed, the cultural extravaganza unfolded at Anna Auditorium, with Yuva Marathi's Music, Dance, and Drama teams taking the stage to showcase their talent. The performances, marked by creativity and skill, captivated the audience, ensuring a lively and engaging afternoon. In addition to the cultural displays, the students were privileged to receive valuable guidance from the Chief Guest and Faculty Members, enriching their learning experience and inspiring them to aim for attaining greater heights in life.

As the sun began to set, the evening session drew to a close with the serving of an authentic Maharashtrian Dinner, providing a fitting conclusion to a day filled with art, culture, and celebration.

SW EVENTS

Baisakhi

Baisakhi event organized by the Punjabi Literary Association (PLA) was held on 18th April, 2024. Baisakhi is one of the most significant festivals in the Punjabi calendar which marks the harvest season and the beginning of a new year for many in the community. It is a time for people to come together, rejoice, and express gratitude for the bountiful harvest. Our PLA Club aimed to encapsulate this spirit of unity and celebration in the event.

The day started with a welcoming ceremony where attendees were greeted with the traditional Shabeel, a rose-flavored milk beverage known for its refreshing qualities. As people mingled and enjoyed their refreshments, the air was filled with anticipation for the activities planned ahead.

One of the key highlights of the event were the arm wrestling matches. These friendly contests brought out the competitive spirit in everyone, with loud cheers and laughter echoing through the venue.

However, it was the cultural performances that truly stole the show. The Giddha girls, dressed in vibrant traditional attire, performed with grace and elegance, captivating the audience with their synchronized movements and expressive storytelling through dance. The Bhangra boys followed with an equally impressive display of energy and vigor. The boys' performance was nothing short of electrifying, with their dynamic moves and enthusiasm encouraging many in the audience to join in and dance along. Aside from the dance performances, the turban-tying sessions were a huge hit. Turbans hold significant cultural and spiritual importance in Punjabi culture, and these sessions provided a hands-on opportunity for attendees to learn about and experience this tradition firsthand.

Throughout the event, the spirit of Baisakhi was further enhanced by live music performances and soulful singing. These musical interludes added a layer of depth and emotion to the celebration, reminding everyone of the festival's roots in gratitude and community.

Ponkani

To honor Vishu, the New Year festival of Kerala, Malayalam Literary Association VIT orchestrated a magnificent event aimed at celebrating and reconnecting with the state's deep-rooted culture and heritage. Vishu marks the Malayalam New Year, symbolizing prosperity and new beginnings. The most prominent aspect of this festival is the preparation of the "Kanni," a traditional harvest basket filled with an array of indigenously grown fruits, vegetables, rice, gold coins, and flowers, arranged in front of a mirror. Seeing the Kanni first thing in the morning is believed to bring good luck and prosperity for the entire year.

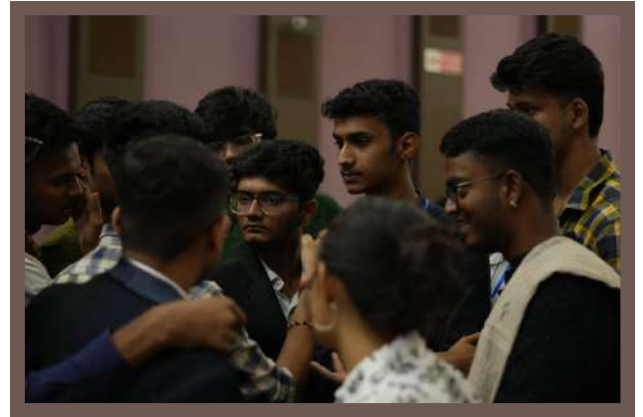

The essence of Vishu lies in its celebration of life, prosperity, and familial bonds. By organizing the "Ponkani" event, MLA VIT not only preserved these cherished customs but also fostered a sense of pride and cultural identity among the younger generation. It was a beautiful reminder of the importance of staying connected to one's roots and celebrating the traditions that bind us together as a community.

Participants of the "Ponkani" event were encouraged to share photos of their beautifully arranged Kanni at home, displaying the cultural pride and community spirit. This initiative saw enthusiastic participation from students, both from their homes and within VIT hostels. These vibrant displays were a testament to the students' creativity and dedication to preserving tradition. The winners were celebrated and their photos were proudly displayed on the social media platforms.

VITMUN 24

VITMUN, the premier Model United Nations conference at VIT Vellore, captivated an impressive number of participants over its vibrant three-day span with 104 internal participants and 124 external participants. Delegates from diverse backgrounds engaged in rigorous debates and negotiations, tackling critical global issues with fervor. The event showcased a variety of committees, from the General Assembly to the Lok Sabha, offering an inclusive platform for intellectual growth and skill development.

Beyond the debates, VITMUN offered ample networking opportunities and social events, encouraging delegates to build lasting connections. These interactions enriched the experience, as participants exchanged ideas and broadened their understanding of global issues. VITMUN provided future leaders with an invaluable opportunity to collaborate, form alliances, and propose innovative solutions, making the conference a memorable and impactful event for all participants.

The success of VITMUN was made possible by the dedicated efforts of the students of VIT MUNSoc, their Faculty Coordinator and the SW Office Staff who meticulously organized and coordinated every aspect of the conference. Their unwavering commitment ensured a seamless experience, allowing delegates to fully immerse themselves in the proceedings. From the opening ceremony to the final resolution presentations, every moment was thoughtfully planned to foster an environment of learning and collaboration.

Yantra Central Hack

The Yantra Central Hack at VIT saw an unprecedented surge in participation this year, with 546 students forming 123 teams, more than doubling the numbers from last year. This increased involvement underscores the growing enthusiasm for technological innovation among VIT students across all batches. The hackathon serves as a dynamic platform for participants to apply their skills in diverse areas, including water management systems, virtual reality, and drones, while fostering teamwork and problem-solving abilities. The event also offers invaluable networking opportunities with industry experts and potential career advancements, making it a highly anticipated and impactful experience for the VIT community.

SW EVENTS

Campaign against plastic pollution - An initiative by Nature club VIT

The Nature's Club at VIT recently conducted a compelling awareness campaign to address the critical issue of plastic pollution. Posters with powerful messages such as "Planet vs Plastic," "Useless Plastic," "Keep the Sea Plastic Free," and "This is Not Evolution, Stop Plastic Pollution," were prominently displayed on the notice board near Woody's, grabbing the attention of passersby. One particularly striking poster highlighted a tragic incident where an elephant was found dead with 2 kilograms of plastic in its bowels in Pattinathitta, Kerala, underscoring the severe impact of plastic waste on wildlife.

As part of the campaign, the Nature's Club creatively constructed models of a tortoise and an elephant using plastic bottles, which were showcased to illustrate the magnitude of plastic waste and its harmful effects on animals. This visual representation served as a stark reminder of the urgent need to reduce plastic usage and protect our environment. Through these efforts, the Nature's Club aims to inspire the VIT community to take actionable steps towards reducing plastic consumption and promoting sustainable practices. The club's initiative not only raises awareness but also encourages students and staff to contribute to a cleaner, greener planet.

No. of Events Conducted : 25

HIGHLIGHTS

Eunoia 4.0 : Anbe Sivam (Humanity is God)

Eunoia 4.0: Anbe Sivam, hosted by Ayuda Club via Google Meet, featured PDG Sridhar Balaraman. He shared insights from his 25+ years in healthcare, education, and community development, inspiring attendees with his leadership and commitment to humanity. The event promoted social responsibility and supported Ayuda Club's mission to empower youth and drive social change.

Beyond the Canvas

The Rotaract Club of VIT conducted, "Beyond the Canvas". Students participated actively in the event and manifested various forms of art through paint, pencils, and sketches. The wide array of art on display at the end of the event proved that art has no boundaries.

Virtual Vigilance: Essentials of Cybersecurity

Virtual Vigilance: Essentials of Cybersecurity, hosted by IET VIT, featured guest speaker Mr. Ashok Sharma, Co-Founder and CTO of PurpleSynapz Labs and QOS Technology. The event provided a detailed introduction to cybersecurity's everyday impact, including interactive quizzes and valuable resources for participants starting their cybersecurity journey.

Flowing Asanas: A Yoga Showcase

The Yoga Club's 'Flowing Asanas: A Yoga Showcase' was held on April at Anna Auditorium. Esteemed instructors Dr. N.V. Thiyagachanthan and Dr. P. MangayarKarasi Arun led attendees through rejuvenating asanas and mindful flow, promoting inner peace and physical vitality.

SAE Podcast S1 E1 McLaren

SAE-VIT's inaugural podcast on YouTube Live covered McLaren's journey from humble beginnings to F1 successes and innovative road cars. The discussion highlighted McLaren's pioneering use of carbon fiber chassis and ended on a high note, discussing iconic partnerships and future prospects for the company.

Eloquence

"Eloquence - Agua's Icebreaker Speech Contest" began with the Sergeant at Arms and the President's opening remarks. The Toastmaster of the Day led four compelling speeches and lively table topics. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks.
