M.Des | Master of Design

Admission through VIT Master's Entrance Examination (VITMEE) 2027

ABOUT
VIT SCHOOL OF DESIGN

VIT School of Design (V-SIGN) was established in 2016. Master of Design (M.Des.) was launched in 2016 and Bachelor of Design (B.Des.) was started in 2018. V-SIGN offers both B.Des. and M.Des. program under the department of industrial design.

In V-SIGN, the Department of Industrial Design creates young designers with skills, knowledge and competence to enable the professional practice of designing products and services used by people every day.

VIT School of Design (V-SIGN) has one of the best infrastructures in India for training product designers. The school trains the students with a 360-degree experiential learning in all aspects of design. Our curriculum is aimed at instilling knowledge with competencies in creating better products and services for the better future and world.

Department of Industrial Design

- 4 Years — B.Des | Bachelor of Design
- 2 Years — M.Des | Master of Design
- 3* Years — Ph.D. Doctor of Philosophy

THE PROGRAM

M.Des.
Master of Design

The two-year program in (M.Des.) Master of Design provides opportunities to develop design sensibilities by working hands-on for designing varied products across wider spectrum of domains ranging from toy design, consumer products, crafted artefacts, smart products, design for healthcare, furniture, mobility, UI/UX and other evolving domains.

The students learn the current methods and practices to design sustainable products inclusive by nature (Humanity centered) and sensitized about aspects of circular economy. Students are trained in digital products such as User Experience Design and Interaction Design as emerging career path to pursue further. The students can specialize in the areas such as Sustainable Design, Product Semantics, Ergonomics, Space Design, Mobility Design and Artificial Intelligence.
