DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

September marked a remarkable month at VIT, filled with innovation, creativity, and meaningful connections. The 15th edition of graVITas, held from 27th to 29th September 2024, was exceptionally outstanding. Seeing the campus buzzing with brilliant minds worldwide was inspiring, sharing ideas and solutions centred around innovation, sustainability, and transformation. The energy and enthusiasm of participants and attendees made it an unforgettable celebration of progress and possibility.

On 11th September, we came together for a deeply impactful session marking World Suicide Prevention Day, organised by the Office of Students' Welfare. Dr. Shiva Prakash Srinivasan's insightful talk at the Channa Reddy Auditorium touched hearts and minds as he addressed the complexities of mental health and suicide prevention.

Adding to the month's vibrancy, Sanskriti – The Literary Week brought a wonderful burst of creativity to campus. Our literary clubs showcased their immense talent, and the events provided students with the perfect platform to shine. With over 200 events and participation from 100+ external guests, it was a week of learning, laughter, and celebration of the written word. September reminded us of the incredible things one can achieve as a community. It showcased several memoirs of inspiration and creativity, fostering a strong sense of teamwork, motivation and camaraderie.

WORLD SUICIDE PREVENTION DAY

A Beacon of Hope and Support

On September 11th, 2024, the Office of Student's Welfare transformed the Chenna Reddy Auditorium into a sanctuary of understanding and support, marking World Suicide Prevention Day with an impactful event. The highlight of the day was an illuminating talk by Dr. Shiva Prakash Srinivasan, a revered mental health expert, who drew a vibrant crowd of students and faculty.

Dr. Srinivasan's profound insights into mental health challenges captivated the audience, offering practical strategies to manage life's stresses. His talk underscored the vital role of compassion, support systems, and early intervention in suicide prevention. Attendees left not just enlightened but empowered to champion mental well-being within their communities.

This resounding success underscores the university's unwavering commitment to mental health awareness. By hosting such transformative events, the Office of Student's Welfare inspires collective action, promoting a healthier and more supportive environment for all.

World Suicide Prevention Day is a global call to action, highlighting the importance of suicide prevention through awareness, understanding, and unity. With impactful campaigns, empowering workshops, and poignant candlelight vigils, communities embrace themes of hope, connection, and resilience. By breaking the stigma around mental health and fostering open dialogue, WSPD sends a powerful message: suicide is preventable with timely support and accessible resources. It stands as a beacon of hope, reminding us all of the strength found in compassion and understanding.

The poster is for an event titled "World Suicide Prevention Day" presented by the "Office of Students' Welfare" at VIT Vellore Institute of Technology. It features a portrait of Dr. Shiva Prakash Srinivasan, a Consultant Psychiatrist at the Vikas Centre for Hormones and Mental Health. The poster includes a graphic of a hand holding a yellow ribbon. The event is scheduled for 11 September 2024 at 10:00AM in the Channa Reddy Auditorium. The text encourages joining for an impactful session on awareness for World Suicide Prevention Day.

UNLEASH YOUR GENIUS

The 15th edition of graVITas, VIT's annual techno-management fest, unfolded as a spectacular celebration of innovation, sustainability, and transformation. Held from 27th to 29th September 2024, the event brought together brilliant minds from across the globe, making it an unforgettable experience for participants and attendees alike.

The excitement kicked off with Pre-Gravitas, a weekend filled with engaging events that set the stage for the grand fest. Clubs and chapters showcased their creativity during the Expo series (1.0 to 4.0), offering a sneak peek into the diverse activities, including hackathons, workshops, competitions, and informal events. Official merchandise reflecting the vibrant essence of Gravitas was also unveiled.

The grand inaugural ceremony was marked by an exhilarating showcase of flying drones and humanoid robots. The event was graced by eminent guests, including Chief Guest Mr. Manoranjan Ram, Vice President of Danieli India Limited, and Guest of Honour Mr. Anand Pujari, Education Manager of Autodesk India Pvt. Ltd. The Hon'ble Chancellor, Dr. G. Viswanathan, officially launched the festival, emphasising the importance of "learning by doing."

Gravitas 2024 captivated attendees with a dazzling array of activities that blended technical brilliance with creative energy. The Laser Show left the audience spellbound with stunning visuals and pulsating beats, while Robowars thrilled spectators with intense battles between cutting-edge robots. The go-karting event saw participants racing head-to-head on a specially designed track, providing an adrenaline rush for both racers and onlookers.

UNLEASH YOUR GENIUS

Equally fascinating was the Drone Racing League, which showcased precision and technological prowess, and the Laser Tag event, which brought participants together in a thrilling strategy-based combat simulation. For literature enthusiasts, the Unlimited Book Fair offered a treasure trove of books spanning genres from mystery and fantasy to classic literature, ensuring there was something for everyone.

The fest saw an impressive 35,000 footfalls, with over 2,000 external participants, including 50+ international students from 11 countries, representing 22 Indian states and 16 nations. Participants demonstrated technical brilliance and entrepreneurial spirit, making graVITas a truly global platform.

The event's tagline, Innovate, Sustain, Transform, resonated through every aspect of the fest. Distinguished guests such as Dr. Arun Kumar Sarma, Director General of NECTAR, and Mr. Sreekanth Tamanna, Director of Sales at Altium India Software, inspired the audience during the valedictory ceremony by underscoring the role of technology in fostering sustainability and innovation.

graVITas'24 concluded on a high note, leaving a legacy of success and excellence. The organisers extended heartfelt gratitude to sponsors, partners, volunteers, and faculty for their unwavering support. With 118 technical events, 45 management events, and 38 informal activities, this year's fest stood as a testament to the creativity and collaboration that defines VIT.

As the curtains fell, the vibrant spirit of graVITas lingered, with participants eagerly looking forward to the next edition of this incredible techno-carnival. Until then, let us continue to Innovate, Sustain, and Transform!

THE CHRONICLES QUEST

Think Fast, Create Wild, Laugh Hard!

On the 27th of September 2024, the stage was set for an unforgettable day at The Chronicles Quest, an event that proved creativity knows no bounds. Participants filled a vibrant venue, brimming with energy and anticipation. The day kicked off with a buzz as participants eagerly awaited for the event to begin. The air was charged with excitement as teams dove headfirst into crafting unique characters. Each creation was a testament to the ingenuity and humor that defined the event.

In the first round teams were tasked with crafting unique characters that would serve as their personas for the rest of the event. The results were as wild as they were creative—pirates with a knack for poetry, futuristic robots with emotional quirks, and even a banana-themed superhero squad! Each team presented their creations, leaving the audience in splits with their clever backstories and quirky attributes. Judges noted not just creativity but also how teams embodied their characters, setting the stage for the rounds to follow.

As the second round unfolded, laughter filled the room. It was a game of musical chairs with a twist—teams were thrust into spontaneous challenges when the music stopped.

Quick thinking became the mantra of the moment, and even the most prepared participants found themselves improvising in hilariously unexpected ways. For the final round, teams took on the challenge of designing epic first looks for their fictional movie creations. The teams pulled out all the stops, combining creativity and collaboration to deliver jaw-dropping presentations.

From the opening buzz to the grand finale, The Chronicles Quest was a rollercoaster of creativity, collaboration, and pure joy. It wasn't just a day of events—it was an experience that left everyone with memories and laughter to last a lifetime.

Gravitas 2024 has truly set the bar high, and this creative showdown will undoubtedly be remembered as one of its highlights.

HIGHLIGHTS

Dance Club

World Dance Day was celebrated on the 22nd of September at Greenos, drawing an audience of approximately 1,500 students. The event featured seven outstanding teams, each delivering mesmerizing performances that showcased diverse dance forms. From contemporary to classical style, every act offered a vibrant display of rhythm and expression, celebrating the art of dance in all its beauty.

Society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME)

An egg drop contest was held at Foodys in collaboration with the Uddeshya club, challenging students to design protective structures to prevent eggs from breaking when dropped from a height. This “egg-citing” event was the perfect recipe for stress relief, blending creativity and technical skills into one unforgettable day. The energy was palpable, as enthusiastic minds turned this challenge into a memorable fiesta of learning and laughter!

Bulls and Bears

Wealth Wars (Finance Carnival) was held at Anna Auditorium, attracting 1,400 enthusiastic students. The competition encouraged budding engineers to explore geopolitics and world economics through an interactive format. Participants represented fictional countries with unique currencies, engaging in sector-based trading to boost GDP, strengthen global relations, and secure debt to win. The event combined fun and learning, leaving participants with valuable insights and lasting memories.

IEEE Computer Society (IEEE-CS)

Tech Niche was a workshop aimed at beginners, focusing on managing PostgreSQL databases using the open-source tool pgAdmin. The session began with an introduction to Database Management Systems (DBMS), followed by guidance on setting up pgAdmin and using key PostgreSQL commands for effective database management and querying. The workshop provided a practical, hands-on opportunity for participants to build their skills and confidence in working with databases.

TEAMS OF VIT

Team Veloce, founded in 2015 at VIT Vellore, is a multidisciplinary team of 33 students and a faculty advisor who push the boundaries of aerodynamics, avionics, and autonomous systems through innovative projects in RC planes, drones, and other aerial vehicles. Comprised of dedicated members across various technical and management domains, Team Veloce is committed to advancing aerospace and autonomous vehicle technologies, focusing on sustainability, efficiency, and innovation.

The team's primary annual focus is the prestigious AIAA Design/Build/Fly (DBF) competition, where they design and construct a custom RC aircraft, rigorously tested for optimal performance. This endeavour involves advanced computational fluid dynamics (CFD) analysis, meticulous avionics integration, and structural design, all managed through streamlined team coordination and planning. The team was among the top 100 globally selected for the AIAA DBF 2023-24 finale, showcasing their competitive edge and engineering expertise.

Beyond AIAA DBF, Team Veloce participates in a variety of competitions that further showcase their versatility and dedication. They secured first place in the GKN competition in Bangalore, where they developed an autonomous electric vertical take-off and landing (eVTOL) aircraft aimed at sustainable urban transport solutions. They also earned second place in the Autodesk Design-a-thon, highlighting their design expertise, and achieved both first and third places at the Airbus Flight Challenge, reflecting their technical skill and innovation.

Through these projects and competitions, Team Veloce is continuously advancing the future of aerospace engineering, creating solutions that reflect the values of excellence and innovation that define VIT. Each project is a testament to their commitment to learning and making a real-world impact in the field of aerospace.

AROUND THE WORLD

IBM Research, in collaboration with NASA, developed the Prithvi Weather and Climate AI Foundation model. This initiative also included collaborations with Environment and Climate Change Canada (ECCC) to support applications such as precipitation prediction. The goal of the model is to enhance global and localized climate forecasts to support applications such as hurricane analysis and long-term climate risk assessments.

The Centre for Climate Science from the University of Cambridge collaborated with the California Institute of Technology in the application of artificial intelligence. Advances in AI algorithms improve the accuracy of climate models, thus allowing for more precise weather phenomena and ecological transformation forecasting. This study was led by two Dr. Emily Shuckburgh from Cambridge and Dr. Tapio Schneider from Caltech.

Studies by the researchers of the Mechanobiology Institute, National University of Singapore, have shown that oocytes from older mice show signs of rejuvenation when cultured together with cells from younger mice. While the results of the study are promising, further research is needed to determine its applicability to human oocytes and its potential use in future fertility treatments.

Ramin Hasani and his team at MIT and collaborators from the Technical University of Vienna have developed a "liquid neural network" inspired by the brain of the C. elegans worm. The new AI model has fewer neurons and connections than traditional systems, making it less energy-intensive. Tests on self-driving cars and drones showed that they are better at adapting and doing tasks like recognizing obstacles and following targets.
