ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This workshop is for anyone who is ready to go beyond simple chatbots like ChatGPT and start using AI as a genuine thinking partner in daily work. Instead of treating AI as a quick-answer machine, we will look at how it can help you plan, organize, create, and make better decisions across your studies and professional life.

In simple, hands-on steps, you will see how to turn scattered ideas and raw information into clear, useful output. Through live demonstrations, you will learn how to set up a digital workflow where AI helps you structure your tasks, draft and refine content, and create strong visual materials without starting from a blank page each time.

By the end of the workshop, you will understand how to work with AI as a partner rather than just chat with it. You will walk away with a practical framework you can reuse in your own projects, so you can think more clearly, communicate more confidently, and get more done in less time.
