Director's MESSAGE

As we step into the month of reflection and renewal, I am filled with a deep sense of appreciation for the vibrant energy that pulses through every corner of our campus. April has been a month of celebration—of institutional pride, cultural richness, and collective accomplishment. From grand milestones to intimate cultural gatherings, the spirit of VIT shone through with warmth, unity, and excellence.

The celebration of University Day 2025 stood as a shining milestone, bringing together students, faculty, alumni, and distinguished guests in a grand showcase of our achievements and aspirations. It was a moment to reflect on our journey, acknowledge our collective efforts, and renew our commitment to academic innovation, social responsibility, and global impact. The awards and recognitions presented during the ceremony were a testament to the hard work, perseverance, and brilliance of our students and faculty. My sincere congratulations to every awardee—you embody the excellence that VIT stands for.

April also marked the celebration of regional New Year festivals across the campus, transforming VIT into a joyous mosaic of cultures, traditions, and togetherness. The vibrant festivities of Puthandu (Tamil New Year), Vishu (Malayalam New Year), Baisakhi (Punjabi New Year), and Poila Boishakh (Bengali New Year) brought life to every corner of our campus, as students donned traditional attire, shared festive meals, and organized cultural performances that reflected the beauty of their heritage.

UNIVERSITY DAY & ANNUAL SPORTS DAY 2025

Vellore Institute of Technology (VIT) celebrated its University Day & Annual Sports Day 2025 on 5th April 2025 with grandeur and pride at the Anna Auditorium, VIT Vellore.
Organized with enthusiasm and meticulous planning, the event brought together students, faculty, staff, and management to honour the academic, extracurricular, and athletic achievements of the VIT community.

The event was graced by Hon'ble Mr. Justice M. M. Sundresh, Judge, Supreme Court of India, who served as the Chief Guest. The Guest of Honour, Mr. R. Ganesan, Senior Vice President and Head of the Corporate Centre at Larsen and Toubro Limited, brought valuable industry perspectives and encouraged students to pursue excellence beyond the classroom.

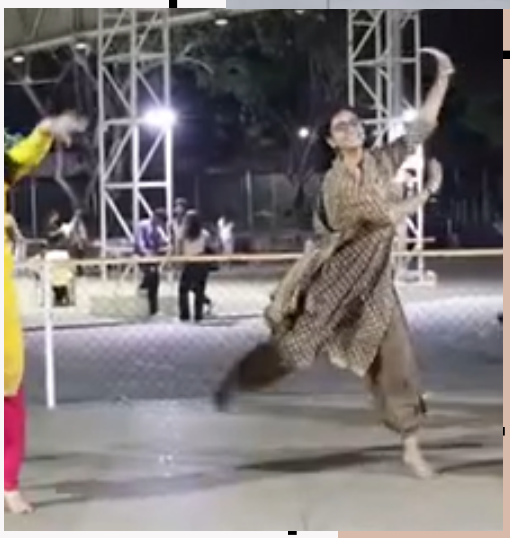

The function was presided over by Dr. G. Viswanathan, Founder and Chancellor of VIT. The event was also graced by the distinguished members of the VIT management, including Mr. Sankar Viswanathan, Dr. Sekar Viswanathan, Dr. G.V. Selvam (Vice Presidents) etc.

The event celebrated a wide array of accomplishments across academic, leadership, and athletic domains. Endowment Awardees, Meritorious Students, Cent Percent Attendance Holders, Achievers and Special Achievers, Sports Awardees, Elite and Best Clubs & Chapters, Programme Representatives, Student Council Members, and Best Outgoing Students were recognized and felicitated for their outstanding contributions.

The celebration was not only a tribute to student accomplishments but also a reflection of VIT's commitment to fostering a holistic and empowering educational environment.

Jashan-e-BAISAKHI

On 15th April 2025, the spirit of Baisakhi, the Punjabi New Year and harvest festival, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and colour at Anna Auditorium, VIT Vellore. The cultural event, Jashan-e-Baisakhi, brought together the VIT community to immerse in the rich and vibrant heritage of Punjab.

The highlight of the celebration was an electrifying performance by the renowned Star Malwai Giddha troupe, specially invited from Punjab. Their dynamic and powerful dance performance captured the true essence of Malwai Giddha — a traditional folk dance known for its robust rhythm, expressive gestures, and cultural storytelling.

The troupe's energy was infectious, lighting up the stage and drawing loud cheers and applause from the audience. Dressed in vibrant ethnic attire, the performers enthralled everyone with their coordinated footwork, drum beats, and expressive moves that showcased the heart of rural Punjab.

The event was not just a performance, but a celebration of unity and tradition. Students and faculty alike enjoyed the cultural spectacle, with many expressing joy at witnessing such a grand display of authentic Punjabi folk art.
The program served as a beautiful reminder of India's diverse cultural tapestry and VIT's commitment to celebrating it.

The event was a meaningful blend of tradition and celebration, bringing a piece of Punjab to VIT and making Jashan-e-Baisakhi 2025 a memorable occasion for all who attended.

UTKALIKA

As the evening cast shadows in Greenos, Utkalika 2025 unfolded on the evening of April 6th. Hosted by the Office of Students' Welfare in collaboration with the Odisha Literary Association, the event marked a grand celebration of Pana Sankranti (Odia New Year) and Utkal Divas (Odisha Foundation Day)

The evening began on an auspicious note with the ceremonial lamp lighting by Mr. Shankar Viswanathan (Vice President, VIT), Dr. Partha Sarathi Mallick (Pro Vice-Chancellor), and Dr. C.D. Naiju (Director, SW), followed by the heartfelt singing of the Odia state anthem, "Bande Utkala Janani."

A mesmerizing cultural showcase followed, featuring the graceful Odissi dance, the powerful and dramatic Chhau performance, and a colorful Ollywood dance that brought modern Odia cinema to life. The event also featured soul-stirring musical performances and a thought-provoking play highlighting the historical role of the Odia language in uniting the state.

The evening concluded with a grand feast of authentic Odia cuisine, bringing together students, faculty, and guests in a spirit of togetherness. Utkalika 2025 was not merely an event—it was a living, breathing tapestry of history, culture, and celebration. It brought together the Odia community and well-wishers of all backgrounds, united by their appreciation for heritage and diversity.

Rongali BIHU

On the evening of April 16th, Greenos came alive with the colors, rhythms, and warmth of Assam as ALA-Enajori hosted a spirited celebration of Rongali Bihu and the Assamese New Year. Beginning around 6:00 PM, the event brought together students, faculty, and dignitaries in a festive showcase of tradition and community.

The celebration featured a rich lineup of performances, including lively Bihu songs, energetic Rongali Bihu dances, and a vibrant Husori sequence by club members that truly captured the essence of Assam's springtime festivity. A special musical medley performed by faculty members added a unique and heartwarming touch to the evening.

Gracing the event were DSW officials, esteemed faculty members, and the Pro Vice-Chancellor, whose presence added to the event's significance and joy. Traditional Assamese snacks were served throughout, offering guests a flavorful taste of the region's culinary heritage.

The celebration concluded with the traditional Bihu urua (farewell dance), followed by the lighting of the diya, symbolizing hope, prosperity, and the start of a new year. A group photograph with the dignitaries captured the shared joy of the occasion before the gathering dispersed with smiles and fond memories.

Rongali Bihu 2025 was more than a cultural evening—it was a heartfelt homage to tradition, togetherness, and the enduring beauty of India's regional festivals.

UGADI

The Kannada Literary Association at VIT Vellore brought the festive spirit of Ugadi 2025 alive with a grand celebration that beautifully reflected the vibrancy and unity of Karnataka's culture. Held in the presence of dignitaries, faculty members, and an enthusiastic audience, the event offered an evening of tradition, artistic brilliance, and heartfelt joy.

The celebration began on an auspicious note with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, signifying the start of a new year and new beginnings. The atmosphere was filled with devotion and pride as a soulful Naadageete and invocation song were performed, setting a spiritual and emotional tone for the evening.

One of the most memorable aspects of the event was the presence of renowned Kannada stand-up comedian Ganesh Kashyap, who captivated the crowd with his sharp humor, light-hearted storytelling, and charismatic stage presence. His performance brought laughter and lightness, adding a special charm to the occasion.

As the event drew to a close, there was a strong sense of shared pride and joy among all present. Ugadi 2025 was not just a celebration of a new year, but a reaffirmation of community, creativity, and cultural pride. It was a night to remember—one that brought smiles, sparked memories, and set a hopeful tone for the year ahead.

ZHAGARAM

PB-Tamil Literary Association hosted Zhagaram—a radiant celebration of Tamil culture, language, and legacy that lit up the campus.The festivities began with an air of elegance and joy as participants adorned their hands with Mehandi and captured memories at two beautifully curated photo booths. The atmosphere shimmered with color, tradition, and youthful exuberance, setting the perfect stage for an evening to remember.

As twilight descended, the stage came alive with a stunning display of Tamil artistic expression—from the raw power of Silambam and the resonant rhythms of Parai, to the grace of Bharatham, the soul of folk dance, the energy of Western dance, and the passion in every note of Tamil singing. Each performance echoed the pride and love that participants hold for their mother tongue and cultural roots.The evening also embraced modern expressions, with Western dance adding youthful energy and singing performances echoing the lyrical beauty of the Tamil language and contemporary melodies alike.

The night culminated in heartfelt singing performances and group photos, preserving the shared joy and unity of over 270+ spirited attendees. Laughter, applause, and cultural pride filled the air, creating a memory that will linger long after the lights dimmed.

Zhagaram 2025 was more than an event—it was an emotional homage to Tamil identity, a vibrant showcase of artistic talent, and a collective celebration of a heritage that continues to inspire generations. In every smile, every beat, and every step, the spirit of Tamil shone bright.

VISHU

On the auspicious occasion of Vishu, the Malayalam New Year, the campus of VIT Vellore came alive with the colors, customs, and charisma of Kerala's vibrant traditions. Organized with heartfelt enthusiasm, the celebrations brought together students in a spirited display of cultural pride, festive joy, and community warmth.From the moment the festivities began, there was an air of renewal and positivity.

Students adorned in traditional Kerala attire—elegant kasavu sarees and mundu-veshti—graced the venue, radiating charm and grace. The surroundings bloomed with vibrant floral decorations, golden hues of kani konna (Cassia flowers), and echoes of Malayalam conversations and laughter.The day was steeped in cherished Vishu customs, beginning with the symbolic Vishu Kani—a beautifully arranged visual offering featuring fruits, flowers, rice, coins, a mirror, and a glowing lamp. This sacred arrangement set the tone for a day of prosperity, hope, and gratitude.

The celebration flowed into a series of cultural programs that included traditional songs, classical and folk dance performances, and light-hearted skits in Malayalam, all reflecting the rich literary and artistic heritage of Kerala. Every performance was met with enthusiastic applause and emotional resonance, reminding everyone of the beauty and strength of cultural continuity.

Adding to the festive mood was the spirit of togetherness. Students gathered not only to perform but to share smiles, stories, and memories, making the celebration feel like a home away from home. The scent of jasmine flowers mingled with the joy in the air, creating an ambience that was both nostalgic and celebratory.

NOTUN BOCHORER PROTHOM SHONDHA

As another year draws to a close, the Bengali Literary Association (BLA) extends its sincere wishes for a season filled with warmth, reflection, and meaningful togetherness.This time of year offers a moment to pause and express our gratitude—for the experiences we've shared, the milestones we've achieved, and most importantly, for the enduring bonds that connect us

The closing of a year is more than just the passing of time—it is a moment of reflection, of appreciation, and of celebration. It reminds us of the meaningful connections we've nurtured, the cultural expressions we've shared, and the milestones we've achieved together. Through literary pursuits, artistic showcases, and collective engagement, this association has continued to be a vibrant platform for expression, learning, and belonging.

In these moments of pause and gratitude, we find ourselves especially thankful for this family we have built—not once, but twice over—for its unwavering support, shared vision, and the spirit of unity that defines our journey. Your participation, enthusiasm, and commitment have been the cornerstone of BLA's enduring success and evolving legacy.

As we prepare to bid farewell to the year gone by, let us carry forward the memories we've made, the lessons we've learned, and the relationships we've deepened. Let us celebrate the path we have walked together and look forward with confidence to the possibilities that await.

May the coming year be one of renewed inspiration, continued cultural enrichment, and collective progress. May it bring moments of joy, growth, and fulfillment to you and your loved ones.

Eminent TALKS

Dr Ritwika Basu
Anokha NGO

"Beyond the Spectrum" was a truly insightful talk on Autism Awareness organized by Anokha NGO on featuring their keynote speaker Dr Ritwika Basu. The session shed light on the nuances of understanding and, more importantly, effectively support individuals on the autism spectrum. She offered an invaluable session that provided fresh perspectives and practical takeaways on how we can all contribute to a more inclusive world.

IIChE-VIT hosted Dr Naveen Veeramani on April 7 for their Alumni Talk. He delved deep into the pivotal role of Carbon Fiber Composites in Renewable energy generation, offering up a crucial perspective. His presentation was a testament to the cutting-edge research and innovation our alumni are pursuing, leaving everyone with a deeper appreciation for the advancements in materials science and their impact on critical sectors

Teams OF VIT

TEAM ALBATROSS

Team Albatross, the top Aero Design team of VIT, has made a name for itself in the global arena with consistent top-class performances at top-level competitions like SAE Aero Design East and SAEISS Aero Design Challenge. As an aviation group formed in 2016, the team has grown to become an army of 40+ engineers dedicated to designing and building world-class remote-controlled planes.

Their showstoppers are Bluebolt (2020), which topped the Asia-Pacific section and ranked 7th overall, and ALB-24 (2023), which ranked 2nd in the nation for its cutting-edge design and structural intelligence. From stealthy Orion to the massive Kolossos, every aircraft is a combination of aerodynamic design and engineering ingenuity.

Around THE WORLD

Verve Therapeutics has reported encouraging results from its Phase 1 clinical trials for a single-dose gene-editing therapy targeting high LDL cholesterol. The treatment, designed to make a permanent change to the PCSK9 gene in liver cells, led to a 59% reduction in harmful cholesterol levels within a month.

In the field of environmental science, researchers have developed a groundbreaking polyurethane material embedded with dormant plastic-eating bacteria. When activated under specific conditions, these microbes begin to break down the plastic from the inside out.

Google's Firebase Studio is a complete reimagining of app development, expected to revolutionize the industry. It's designed to streamline building, testing, and managing apps within the Firebase ecosystem.
