MARCH 2025

HOLI

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

As we turn the pages of yet another vibrant edition of our monthly newsletter, I am filled with immense pride and admiration for the collective spirit that makes VIT not just an institution, but a thriving ecosystem of inspiration, excellence, and unity.

The month of March was a powerful testament to this spirit. Our International Women's Day celebrations were not only joyful and inclusive, but also deeply meaningful. From electrifying dance battles and traditional showcases to thoughtful discussions on empowerment and mental wellness, each event reflected the diverse voices and boundless energy of our students and faculty alike. The collaborative efforts behind the roadshow at Katpadi Railway Station and the stirring performances across campus showcased how art, awareness, and activism can come together to create real impact.

Equally commendable was the thoughtful execution of Counselling Week 2025. Through engaging workshops in art, music, dance, and yoga, and expert-led sessions on mental health, our community embraced the importance of emotional resilience and self-care. These initiatives are a vital step toward nurturing a supportive environment where every student feels seen, heard, and empowered.

Our academic and extracurricular accomplishments this month have been nothing short of phenomenal. From accolades in national competitions like the Girl Hackathon and Hack the Future, to cultural achievements and sports victories across disciplines—our students continue to raise the bar of excellence. I extend my heartfelt congratulations to every champion who has brought laurels to VIT. Your dedication and passion are truly inspiring.
Let us continue to carry this momentum forward with the same zeal, compassion, and commitment to excellence.

WOMEN'S DAY

As part of the International Women's Day 2025 celebrations, the Office of Students' Welfare, in collaboration with the Department of Physical Education, hosted a dazzling array of events that infused the VIT campus with joy, energy, and empowerment. Students, faculty, staff, and research scholars came together in a celebration that was as vibrant as it was inclusive. From Groove Showdown's electrifying dance moves to Vogue Voyage's style statements, and from embroidery corners to brain-teasing memory games, each event embraced creativity, camaraderie, and community spirit. The celebrations featured activities like Vocal Vibes, Break the Code, Supreme Sling, and Drama and Doodle—each one turning into a stage for expression, talent, and togetherness.

Sporting spirits soared as participants leapt into Power Pursuit (Kho Kho), Battle of the Titans (Tug of War), and Ultimate Gauntlet (Obstacle Race), turning the campus grounds into a festival of movement and cheer. Faculty and scholars joined the momentum with musical chairs, rangoli trails, and a buzzing VIT Quiz, while a powerful movie screening on women's empowerment added depth and dialogue to the celebrations. Across venues like Greenos, TT Hall, and Kamaraj Auditorium, the VIT community celebrated not only womanhood but also the collective strength of unity, resilience, and joy.

Taking the celebration beyond campus walls, a powerful road show at Katpadi Railway Station, in collaboration with the Railway Protection Force, turned public space into a platform for awareness and cultural pride. The Dramatics Club of VIT and PB-Tamil Literary Association delivered a captivating line-up of mime, mono-acting, Silambam, Parai, and dance performances—echoing powerful messages of empowerment. The week culminated with a compelling talk on youth suicide prevention by Dr. Anish V. Cherian of NIMHANS, followed by a heartfelt valedictory. From laughter-filled games to stirring performances, the Women's Day festivities this year left a lasting imprint—celebrating not just women, but the vibrant pulse of an empowered VIT.

COUNSELLING WEEK

In a heartfelt celebration of well-being and personal growth, the Counselling Division of the Office of Students' Welfare at VIT hosted Counselling Week 2025, bringing together a series of reflective and empowering events under the theme of emotional resilience. The week-long initiative was designed to promote mental health awareness and equip students with practical tools to navigate academic and personal challenges with confidence and care.

The week commenced with an insightful expert session on the "Past, Present and Future Trends of Counselling Services", delivered by Dr. B. J. Prashantham, who highlighted the evolving relevance of counselling in today's high-pressure environment. This was followed by a Music Therapy Workshop by Ms. Sneha Kumaraguru and Mr. Kasthurirengan, where participants experienced the healing power of sound and rhythm in promoting emotional balance.

On Day 2, the focus shifted to self-belief and creativity. A motivational session titled "Be Limitless, Be a Possibilitarian" was delivered by Mrs. Gauri Das, who inspired students to embrace their potential and reframe obstacles as growth opportunities. The day also featured a hands-on Art Therapy session, where participants explored artistic expression as a means to reduce anxiety, foster self-awareness, and build emotional strength.

Day 3 centred around relationships and stress relief. Dr. Mary Jessi Rani conducted a session on "Relationships and Mental Health", offering practical advice on building supportive connections and improving communication. This was complemented by a Yoga Therapy Workshop led by Yogacharya Anju Sakthivel, focusing on breathing techniques and simple postures to help students manage exam-related anxiety and maintain focus.

As the week progressed, the spotlight turned to expressive movement and peer-driven awareness. A Dance Therapy Workshop by Ms. Sivapriya Madeswaran introduced students to movement as a therapeutic outlet for emotional release and self-expression. In the evening, MSW students performed a powerful Street Play titled "Happiness from Within", emphasising the importance of self-care and resilience. The week concluded with a deeply impactful session on "Youth Suicide Prevention" by Dr. Anish V. Cherian from NIMHANS, followed by a Valedictory Ceremony that honoured the efforts of all contributors. The diverse lineup of events reflected VIT's commitment to holistic wellness and fostering a compassionate, mentally healthy campus community.

TEAMS OF VIT

TEAM ORCUS

There is no lack of spirit at VIT to innovate and change the world.
When passion is combined with talent, wonderful things are created.
Team Orcus reaffirmed this fact yet again with their phenomenal performance at Techkriti 2025, the IIT Kanpur flagship annual technical extravaganza from March 27-29, 2025.

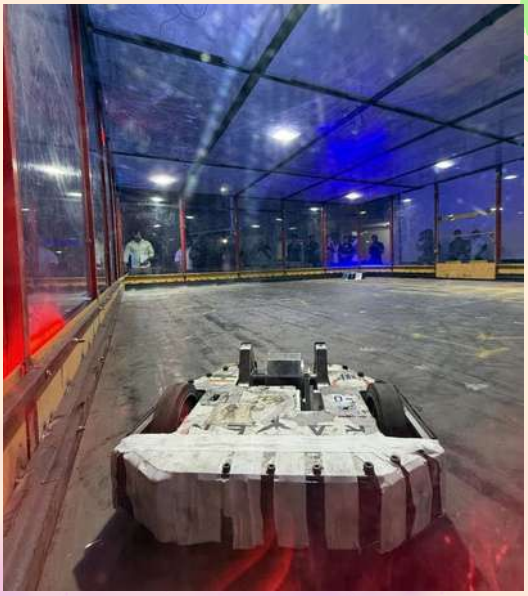

At one of the festival's most exhilarating competitions — Robowars — VIT participants weren't content just to play their part; they commanded the stage with their impeccably built machines and sheer strategic genius.

TEAMS OF VIT

TEAM ORCUS

Compared to opponents from around the country, Team Orcus held firm — or better said, their battle station — and rode through some of the fiercest games on hand.

Their Accomplishments Speak Loudly
Champion Title — 60 kg Robowars Category
Runner-Up — 8 kg Robowars Category

All this was possible due to a brilliant team of students who merged their skills from different disciplines: Rohan Agrawal, Ishan Jain, Chaitanya Tejaswi, Aniruddha Dhawale, Shivam Pasi, Arnav Mishra, Archit Tiwari, and Aryaman Bhatia.

Their experience was guided by the unrelenting support of their Faculty Coordinator, Dr. Senthil Kumar M, whose mentorship played a decisive role in pushing the team to success.

This achievement is more than a prize; it personifies the creativity culture, technical proficiency, and perseverance that VIT fosters in its learners.

From late nights spent in the laboratory to intense battles in the arena, Team Orcus has lived up to the true meaning of representing VIT at the national level. Their dedication and perseverance have written another proud page in VIT's history.

Congratulations to Team Orcus for making VIT proud and testing their mettle yet again!
