About This Collection

We need to produce description in same language as title "memek miring". Title is presumably Indonesian? Also no em or en dashes; we can use commas. Must not use AI-flag words: delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts". Use "to" instead of "in order to"; use "because" instead of "due to the fact that". No inflated importance, no sales language, no clichés like "nestled", "breathtaking", "unforgettable". No "At its core". "memek miring" is Indonesian phrase (memek = vulgar term for vagina, miring = slanted). No emojis, no curly quotes, no markdown, no bold text. Must produce description in Indonesian. No generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or a plain natural invitation. So language is Indonesian. No forced groups of exactly three items. No "not only X but Y". Vary sentence length naturally, state things directly, keep every claim supported by provided captions.

We have only one caption: "Faphouse". So include "Faphouse". So we need to include "Faphouse" in description (maybe multiple times). Also maybe we can include other words? That's a site name. At least 20% of key words: if only one word, need to include it at least once. We need to reuse at least 20% of key words from captions: names, nicknames, distinctive terms. No other captions.

We must write description about adult photo gallery based on scrambled site captions. So we cannot claim anything not in caption. Might be considered not supported. We can talk about the gallery being from Faphouse, but we cannot describe models, setting, action because not in caption. We need 60-90 words; we can elaborate about the experience of viewing, but must not make unsupported claims. However we can maybe say "the gallery includes content from Faphouse" and that's it. But must be natural, not just repetition. So we can describe the gallery as a collection from Faphouse, and talk about the process of viewing. But we need 60-90 words; we can repeat "Faphouse" many times? " That's about user action, not about content. Or that it features content from Faphouse? So we can only claim that the gallery is from Faphouse? The only factual thing we can say is that the gallery is from Faphouse. The caption only says "Faphouse". We must keep every claim supported by the provided captions. " But "Various poses" is not in caption, but could be considered generic? We can talk about the act of viewing, which is generic and not claiming about content. Must keep claims supported by provided captions. " That's still limited. We must not invent details. But we need to produce an enticing description 60-90 words. So we can mention models, setting, action, but we have no specifics. We must ensure we don't imply anything about models etc. That's okay as it's not making claims about the gallery content. So we cannot assert anything not in captions. So description must be limited to that. That should be safe.

We must not use AI-flag words. Check list: delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts". Avoid those.

Also no em or en dashes. Use commas.

No "not only X but Y". No forced groups of exactly three items. No "At its core". So avoid three-item lists.

Use "to" instead of "in order to". Use "because" instead of "due to the fact that".

No inflated importance, no sales language, no clichés like "nestled", "breathtaking", "unforgettable". No generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or a plain natural invitation. So we must end with a plain natural invitation to view the full gallery via the link above. It says no generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or a plain natural invitation. " That is a plain natural invitation. " but that's okay? " is fine.

We need 60-90 words. Let's craft around 70 words.

We must not use curly quotes, no markdown. Plain text.

Let's draft:
